- A very inspiring class that truly is a beautiful art form. I'm so happy that Cornish had this class as an option.
- The incremental approach to developing our routines was super helpful! It helped me stay on track for completing mine on time and making it manageable rather than a huge task. The character-building assignments were also useful and gave a great starting point for figuring out what direction to go.
- This course was so much fun and was set up and taught very well. Marc Kenison (Waxie) was very informative and helpful and always came to class prepared. Waxie kept an open, loving, and accepting environment and community within the class and was always readily available to answer questions or help the students. With being such a physical and performance class, it was formed very well to fit the mold of teaching online. Wonderful class!
- This class was very fun, thank you!
- I really found this class fun and empowering. I took it as a sexual assault survivor in hopes of getting that confidence and control of my body again. I feel so much better after taking this class. I felt safe and free to express. My only con is i wish we did more dance moves or learned some combinations before creating our own acts.
- I was excited to take this class in person, but online it turned out even better than I could have expected. Waxie did a phenomenal job navigating the pandemic craziness with grace, and still getting a TON out of us individually and as a group. Having an instructor who is skilled and knowledgeable is amazing, but Waxie was also willing to step back and let others take the lead along the way. We had some fantastic guest artists, and we also learned a lot from each other. The group work was some of the most valuable to the artistic process! That said, having an instructor who can demonstrate the concepts in a way that makes the lesson stick... that's priceless. Over and over Waxie not only told us, but SHOWED us why a technique worked and how to implement it. He is so gracious and helpful and understanding, and I would have thought that could lead to lower quality work. I'm used to folks cracking the whip... Instead, it just made me try harder to be the best I could, and gave me the freedom to let off the pressure when I could. !0/10 would recommend! I would recommend this class to anyone who wants to feel empowered and creative. You don't have to be a dancer or an actor, just have a desire to make something magical in a supportive and creative environment.
